SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1860.

Change of Time.—On and after Monday next, the trains on the Toledo & Wabash Railroad will leave our depot—going West at 2:00 A. M., and 2:45 P. M.; going East, at 12:30 P. M., and 12:45 A. M.

Bill for the Suppression of Polygamy in Utah.—A bill has passed the House, by a vote of 149 to 60, for the suppression of polygamy.

This bill provides that any married person residing in any territory of the United States, who shall intermarry, or cohabit with, or live with, any person or persons as partners acknowledging conjugal relations, the female wife or husband being alive, shall on conviction pay a fine not exceeding $500, and be imprisoned not less than two nor more than five years.

The bill further provides that the ordinance of the provisional government of Utah incorporating the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and all other acts of the territorial legislature which establish, maintain, support, shield, or encourage polygamy, evasively called spiritual marriage, however disguised by legal or ecclesiastical solemnities, sacraments, ceremonies, consecrations, or other contrivances, he disappears or annulled. This act is intended to strike at the root of the evil, and if passed by the Senate, and rigidly enforced, will speedily blot out this foul infamy. It is much to be feared however that it will lead to secession in Utah, and be found impossible to carry it into execution.

The appointment of Maj. English as Marshal of this state is said to be highly dis�usted by Mr. Finch, one of our Senators, who threatens to defeat the confirmation of the nomination.

Mr. Voorhees is also said to have remonstrated warmly with the President on this subject, and to have been rather coolly answered that the right to appoint was with the President, and he should exercise it according to his own pleasure and judgment.

Conjectural Election.—After a warm and excited canvass, in which the Republicans expended an immense sum of money, they have succeeded in wresting their Government by a narrow majority of 500 or 600. This shows that the sober second thought is offering wonders even in New England, which has been thought an impregnable strong hold of abolitionists and John Brown. In 1850 the Republican majority in Connecticut was 7,720; in 1856 it was 2,764; in 1858 it was only 1,610; and now it is reduced to 500! One can more, and day's work. If Douglas be our candidate for President, we shall fully expect to carry Connecticut in November.

Democratic Victory in Rhode Island!—Little Rhodey has crowned herself with glory, and shows that the treasonable doctrines of the Republicans had no response in our midst from whose policies no man's property is safe.

On Tuesday morning, between three and four o'clock, the saddle shop of Dr. Lancelot, corner of Clinton and Columbia streets, was discovered to be on fire, and though the alarm was given promptly and the firemen promptly on the spot, it was totally consumed, together with three adjoining buildings, a shore being lost in the canal, the engine could not render much service, but hurried snatched in rendering the flames, and saving the brick building of Mr. Wagner, which was in imminent danger. The building destroyed were old and not of much value. The saddleshop and the next adjoining belonged to the Knights, and the other to Mr. Jas. Hutchinson. Mr. Lancelot's loss is $1,120—insured for $1,000. Mr. Starkey occupied the upper story in a paint shop, and lost all his tools and stock, amounting probably to $150 or $200. The other buildings were occupied as groceries, and the contents were mostly saved. A poor family living in the upper part of Hutchinson's building lost nearly all their furniture, and it was with some difficulty that the children, some four or five in number, were saved.

It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

ANOTHER!—On Thursday afternoon we were again startled by the alarm of fire, caused by the conflagration of James' steam saw mill, near Niernier's Brewery. The wind was blowing a gale from the west at the time, carrying burning embers and flakes of fire to a great distance, and endangering a large portion of the city. The roof of a barn belonging to W. D. Henderson, near the Hezekiah House, 4 blocks distant from the fire, was set on fire by these flying messengers of destruction, but it was fortunately discovered and extinguished before much damage was done. Several piles of straw, and shavings in different places were also set on fire by these means, and nothing but the most vigilant watchfulness, and the praiseworthy and almost superhuman efforts of our firemen and citizens, prevented a general and wide-spread conflagration. Fortunately these efforts were successful, and the fire was confined to the building in which it originated and which was entirely consumed.

The building had not been used as a saw-mill for some time, but was occupied by Mr. Green for the cutting of cane and making molasses. He lost the whole of his apparatus, and had no insurance. His loss is heavy, as all he had in the world was embodied in this enterprise.

The building was fastened up, and had not been used for some time. The fire was probably caused by a spark from the steam mill in the west wing, through some crevices and igniting the dry crushed cane, which remained in the mill, and which flushed out almost as rapidly as powder. Within five minutes of the first discovery of fire, the entire building was one mass of flame.

Our City Council have offered a reward of $500 for the detection of any person guilty of setting fire to buildings in the city. We hope some one may earn the reward and save out such wanton destruction of property in our midst.

The large engine of the Mechanic's Co. No. 2 having been found totally inefficient and useless, and nothing to believe that it would be to their advantage to vote for republican state and county officers. That the taxes are high cannot be denied; but that we should reduce them by placing republicans in office is contrary to all past experience and the history of the republican party wherever it is in power. Extravagance, fraud, and embezzlement, are the order of the day in the states blessed with republican rule.

How many cases of fraud and default on the part of republican officials have been published within the past year, and what is there in the character of the republican office-holders of this state to justify the hope that they would prove better than their brethren elsewhere? As specimens of republican economy and financial skill, take the case of our sister state of Ohio, where the appropriations made by the republican legislature have been on the most wasteful and extravagant style, actually exceeding the revenue by the sum little sum of $100,000!

The Cincinnati Enquirer says:

Not before the present, in the history of Ohio, have the finances and the public works of the state been in such a deplorable condition. This is the fifth year of republican rule, and the treasury is empty, and the credit is in a degrading and unproductive condition. The State has not the public debt, at this time, there is not a single dollar in the treasury of the state of Ohio, to pay the legal expenses of the state government, and still, claim to a large amount have been accumulated.

The fact is, the materials, having been sold to John W. Dawson, of the Times, whose office was destroyed by fire on the 24th of April. By this arrangement Mr. D. was enabled to commence his daily, Monday, after a brief suspension of only eight days. Mr. Bailey found the publication of a republican paper not only profitable, and we congratulate him on having found so advantageous an opportunity of selling his materials and keeping further sale. We are not advised, what business he will turn to, but whatever it may be we cordially wish him every success in his future career.

The Corcoran movement was a mere raid and the accounts largely magnified.

February 15, 1855, there was paid into the State Treasury, in excess of the receipts of the Public Works, after deferring all the expenses of their repair, the sum of six hundred and fifty-five thousand one hundred and fifty-five dollars; whereas in the four years ending November 15, 1859, the entire revenue was expended in keeping them in repair, and in addition thereto, there was drawn from the State Treasury for that purpose, over and above the revenue, the sum of two hundred and fifty-two thousand eight hundred and fifty-six dollars; thus leaving the State Treasury to its very nearly one million of dollars worse off in the four years of republican management of that one department than it would have been had the works been managed successfully as they were by the Democrats the four years preceding their falling into the hands of the Republicans.

The above is a fair specimen of republican economy, and is what we may expect to see in Illinois if the republicans are given the control of our finances. This is a matter deserving the attention of our citizens, and they should examine in all its bearings before they really resort to a change which will inevitably be for the worse, and increase the burdens it is sought to remove. Our taxes are indeed high, but the credit of the state is preserved unimpaired, and the taxes will be reduced as soon as the arrows lost unpreserved by our republican legislature are paid off.

Place the republicans in power and our taxes would be increased, the state credit would be lost, and we should be reduced to the bankrupt condition of Ohio. Elect the democratic ticket and a democratic legislature and we shall soon see better times. Mr. Hendricks, our candidate for Governor, is a safe, prudent, and economical man, and under his management we make no doubt we should be better off and less heavily taxed than we shall under republican rule.

Change is not always improvement, and if the citizens of Indiana should listen to the advice of republican deceivers they will assuredly have cause to regret it.

Township Election.—At our township election on Monday there was some little interest manifested, but no political excitement. The candidates elected no political democrats, and the vote, though small, shows the rural influx—two democrats to one republican. The vote for trustee, the only one in which a direct test could be had, was—Rekers 675, Dobris 325—democratic majority 350. About 1000 were polled. The following were elected:

Trustee, C. A. Rogers; Justice of Peace, W. W. Stearns and J. D. Weston; Constables, F. Franklin J. Hedges, A. T. Hodges, and C. Snelley.

Elections.—At an election for city and ward officers in Cincinnati on Monday, the Democratic ticket was elected by the average majority of 700. Of the councilmen elected the Democratic candidates were 3,000—showing a net Democratic gain this year of 2,700. I. Good for Porkopolis! In November the Democrats in that city will "go the whole hog!"

In Toledo on the same day the Republicans were successful.

MORE FIRES!

Our citizens have kept in constant alarm of fire, and the impression is general that we have incendaries in our midst from whose policies no man's property is safe.

On Tuesday morning, between three and four o'clock, the saddle shop of Dr. Lancelot, corner of Clinton and Columbia streets, was discovered to be on fire, and though the alarm was given promptly and the firemen promptly on the spot, it was totally consumed, together with three adjoining buildings, a shore being lost in the canal, the engine could not render much service, but hurried snatched in rendering the flames, and saving the brick building of Mr. Wagner, which was in imminent danger. The building destroyed were old and not of much value. The saddleshop and the next adjoining belonged to the Knights, and the other to Mr. Jas. Hutchinson. Mr. Lancelot's loss is $1,120—insured for $1,000. Mr. Starkey occupied the upper story in a paint shop, and lost all his tools and stock, amounting probably to $150 or $200. The other buildings were occupied as groceries, and the contents were mostly saved. A poor family living in the upper part of Hutchinson's building lost nearly all their furniture, and it was with some difficulty that the children, some four or five in number, were saved.

This is evidently the work of an incendiary.

Two more fires have broken out in Toledo, and the citizens are again in alarm. The latest was on Wednesday evening, about 10 o'clock, in a building on the corner of Main and Superior Streets, and the alarm was given promptly and the firemen promptly on the spot, but the fire was too well known to be extinguished.

It is evident that the whole line of fire will be found in the neighborhood of the last two fires.

If you wish to see a real beautiful and fashionable assortment of new goods, just step into Amherst's Boston Store, and you will be gratified. His stock of fashionable Drapery Goods is superb, and includes all the newest styles, and every thing really desirable that could be found in the market. He also has an immense variety of fancy articles, and his staple goods are always of the best quality. Carpets, rags, oil cloths, and every thing in that line will be found in profusion, and at the lowest prices.

This is one of the best stores in the city, and no account will go to it in vain, and certainly intended to, and will find the best of goods at the lowest rates.

ROD'S and SHOES.—We called in the other day to Stearns, Jacobs & Son's Boot and Shoe establishment, and were much pleased to find their spring stock of new and fashionable goods to be of the highest quality.

They are especially well known for their spring stock of new and fashionable goods to be of the highest quality. Their stock is constantly renewed with much taste and judgment. The styles and qualities of Children's, Men's, and Ladies' wear are certainly superior, most beautiful, and at very low prices, while their assortment of Youth's, Boys', and Men's wear is abundant, and of the first quality. They are extensively engaged in the manufacture of all kinds of hats and shoes, which give credit and confidence to their house, as honest manufacturers promote the interests of any country. We are glad to find this firm succeeding so well, as they are deserving, pleasant and obliging business men. Give them a call, and we doubt not, that you will only purchase, but go away well satisfied, and will call again.

General Bright Davis, of Massillon, rose to tender his acknowledgements to Mr. Finch. The stockholders had nothing to lose by any arrangement and he was in favor of some measure by which something might be saved to them. He thought Mr. Ogden would protest right.

Mr. Finch's resolution being again read by request, it was passed, on motion of James S. Collins, of Columbus, Indiana, and Mr. Ogden, of Chicago, so as to make the Committee consist of two members, three from Pennsylvania, three from Ohio, three from Indiana, and one from Illinois, to be selected by the stockholders in attendance from each State.

A. B. BROWN, of Ohio, was chosen to represent Indiana, and the other to represent Illinois. Mr. Finch, of Indiana, offered the appointment to Mr. Ogden, but he declined, and was appointed by the stockholders to another, and set to work to get up a committee.

He was succeeded by Mr. Ogden, and the stockholders voted to accept his services.

The motion was carried, and the Chair appointed A. P. Edgerton, of Ohio, 1. Edger Thorpe, of Philadelphia, Gen. Dwight Jarvis, of Boston, E. Quincy, Jr., of Worcester, and Samuel Chase, of Fort Wayne.

No motion the meeting then adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon.

Afternoon.—The meeting was opened at half past four o'clock in the afternoon, and was called to order by the Chairman.

Gen. Dwight Jarvis, of Massillon, from the committee appointed at the October session, reported the adoption of the resolution of Mr. Finch, and the act of Assembly made by Mr. Ogden, to take the same under consideration, and report when the meeting reassembled.

Gen. Ogden responded right.

Mr. Finch suggested that the vote should be taken on the chair of a committee of five, to whom should be referred the resolution of Mr. Finch, and the act of Assembly made by Mr. Ogden, to take the same under consideration, and report when the meeting reassembled.

Gen. Ogden responded right.

The report was unanimously adopted.

On motion, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be signed by its officers, and published in the Fort Wayne Sentinel, and the Santa Zeitung to be requested to copy, after which the meeting adjourned.

The "Constitution" makes the official announcement that information has been received at the department of State that the U. S. and Great Britain are to meet in October to adjust and pay off the debts of the two countries.

It is in contemplation to procure a steam engine of small size, which can be drawn by hand, for the use of the city. They do not cost more than double the price of a good hand engine, and are said to throw nearly six times as much water.

The Fair Wayne, Republicans have been discontinued, the materials having been sold to John W. Dawson, of the Times, whose office was destroyed by fire on the 24th of April. By this arrangement Mr. D. was enabled to commence his daily, Monday, after a brief suspension of only eight days.
